

Dr. DHARMA CHOUDHARY

DM in Clinical Hematology

Director and Head of the Department, Blood & Marrow Transplantation

Dr. Dharma is a highly acclaimed clinician in the field of Hematology & Bone Marrow transplants. With more than 20 years of experience, Dr. Dharma has accomplished over 1800 stem cell transplants, out of which he has done more than 1300 transplant procedures independently on both Pediatric and Adult patients suffering from hematological disorders.

Education and Training

- DM in Clinical Hematology from AIIMS.
- A life member of the Indian Society of Hematology & Transfusion Medicine (ISHTM)
- Expert in transplants for Hemoglobinopathies, Bone Marrow failure syndrome, Haploidentical transplant, Graft versus Host disease.

Previous Associations

- BLK Max Superspeciality Hospital, New Delhi
- Sir Ganga Ram Hospital, New Delhi

Fellowships

- Fellowship in BMT through the prestigious Leukemia/BMT Program of British Columbia, Canada

Treatment Specialisation

- Transplant for Hemoglobinopathies (Thalassemia Major & Sickle Cell disease)
- Bone Marrow failure syndrome (Aplastic anemia / Fanconi anemia)
- Haplo Identical transplant
- Graft versus Host disease.

Achievements

- Started the largest Bone Marrow Transplant program in North India at Dr. B. L. Kapur Memorial Hospital. He has done more than 1200 stem cell transplants at this unit.
- Has done more than 1000 Allogenic Bone Marrow Transplantations and 300 Autologous Stem Cell Transplantations independently. The majority of patients were with Thalassemia, Major, Acute Leukemia (Myeloid & Lymphoid), Aplastic Anemia Multiple Myelomas, and Lymphoma.