

Dr. DIVYA DOVAL

Fellowship in Hemato-Oncology & BMT
Specialized in treating Hemoglobinopathies
(Thalassemia Major & Sickle Cell disease)

Consultant of the Department of Blood and Marrow Transplantation

With a vast experience of 14 years, Dr. Divya excels in this specialty. She has experience of performing over 900 successful stem cell transplants and is widely acknowledged for her specialized services in Hemato-Oncology and Bone marrow transplant procedures

Education and Training

- MBBS from Santosh Medical College, Ghaziabad, (Meerut University)
- MRCPCH from UK

Previous Associations

- BLK Superspeciality Hospital, New Delhi
- NHS trust, UK

Fellowships

- A three years' fellowship in Hemato-Oncology & BMT

Treatment Specialisation

- Autologous stem cell transplant
- Allogenic stem cell transplant
- Graft versus host disease
- Long-term follow-up post-transplant
- Transplants for Thalassemia Major & Sickle Cell disease
- Haploidentical transplant

Achievements

- Dr. Divya previously worked as a Consultant in the B. L. Kapur center for Bone Marrow Transplant (one of the largest transplant centers in Northern India) and conducted over 900 stem cell transplants.
- She has presented her research on transplants for hemoglobinopathies, Fanconi anemia, and post-transplant complications in the Annual meeting of Transplant and Cellular therapy and Asia Pacific Bone marrow transplantation meetings. She won a travel grant for a young investigator from APBMT.