

Dr. DINESH ARORA

Head of the Department & Consultant
Department of Transfusion Medicine

HOD & Consultant Transfusion Medicine

Dr. Dinesh Arora is a competent professional with over 15 years of experience in Transfusion Medicine. He has been associated with the performance of a diverse range of blood and blood transfusion-related procedures and has been associated with a number of prestigious healthcare organisations.

Education and Trainings

- MBBS from IGMC, Nagpur (1999)
- Diploma in Clinical Pathology and Bacteriology, Mumbai (2005)

Previous Associations

- Fortis Hospital, Shalimar Bagh, New Delhi
- Medanta – The Medicity
- Medanta Africare Ltd, Nairobi
- Cryobanks International India Pvt. Ltd.
- Lions Blood Bank
- Jaipur Golden Hospital

Fellowships & Awards

- Harold Gunsen Fellowship in 2014 for ISBT Korea
- Abstract accepted and published in Vox Sanguinis at ISBT London 2014
- Best Oral Presentation Award at Transcon 2014 at Patiala
- Abstract accepted and published in Vox Sanguinis at ISBT London 2015
- Indian Society of Blood Transfusion and Immunohematology “Award of Excellence” at Transcon 2018, 43rd Annual Conference

Treatment Specialisations

- Handled the profile of Associate Consultant and Consultant at Department of Transfusion Medicine at Medanta with special focus on Donor Testing and therapeutic procedures in patient as well as donors
- Handled the profile of Manager – Medical Services, Head Client Services and Consultant Laboratory Services at Cryobanks International (now CryoViva)
- Assisting the senior management in planning, implementing, evaluating and modifying the existing operations, systems and procedures in order to achieve desired results
- Leading efforts for streamlining processes and generating cost savings in operations